Le Gras, or "Pere le Gras," as he was familiarly called by his friends, is now dead, and the last part of his large cabinet will have been sold at auction in Paris at about the time this catalogue makes its appearance. It was from "Pere Le Gras'" cabinet that I obtained many of the rare early American coins offered by me within the last three years: A bright red Chain cent, 1793; a unique combination of the Wreath cent; the Liberty

Cap cent, same year, now in the cabinet of Mr. Wm. H. Cottier; 1795 thick planchet cent, which sold for $85, and is now valued at $150; five uncirculated 1794 cents, now in my cabinet; many specimens of early dimes, half-dimes, uncirculated or proof; 1794, 1795 (Bushnell sale), 1801 and 1802 half dollars, uncirculated, etc., etc. A few among the fine cents offered in the following lines also originally came from his cabinet, but are not my property at the present time. To judge from his American coins, "Pere le Gras" must indeed have been a collector of taste and the possessor of a splendid cabinet.

COLONIAL COINS AND WASHINGTON CENTS.

131 B. Virginia. 1773. Cent; a beautiful impression; bright red color.

132 Nova Constellatio. 1783. U. S. Fine impression.

133 VERMONT. 1785. VERMONTIS RES PUBLICA. The entire legends, obv. and rev. very good; the centre weak. Good and rare.

134 1785 Vermon Auctori. Rev., Immune Columbia. Barely fair or poor, but everything except date legible. Rare.

135 NEW YORK. 1787. Immunis Columbia. Liberty with flag and scales seated on globe. Rev., Eagle. E PLURIBUS UNUM. Fine and very scarce.

136 1795 Talbot, Allum & Lee or New York cent. Brilliant light olive; uncirculated, small scratches over ship. Scarce.

137 Washington cent. 1783. Rev., "Unity States." Drift marks on obv. pl. as usual, but sharp and uncirculated. Scarce in this condition.

138 1791 Cent. Military bust to left. Rev., Large eagle. A fine impression; uncirculated. Very scarce in this condition.

139 1791 Cent. Small eagle reverse. Dark olive, uncirculated and rare.

141 (1795) Military bust to left. Rev., LIBERTY AND SECURITY. Edge inscribed; "An asylum for the oppressed of all nations." Very fine impression; scarce. 21.

UNITED STATES CENTS.

142 1793 Chain. Rev., UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. A slender crack in the planchet extends from L in "Liberty" through the hair; there are a few short nicks on head, and one on cheek. Extremely fine and sharp impression; from the "Merritt" sale. Very rare and desirable. (Monograph No. 1.) Plate I.

143 1793 Chain. Dots after "Liberty" and date. Rev., UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. The head, as usual with this variety, weak. "Liberty," date, and reverse sharp. Nearly fine; rare. (Monog. 2.)

144 1794 Chain. Without dots after legend and date; light brown. Fine and rare. (Monog. 3.) Plate I.

145 1793 Wreath. "Liberty" large, the date wide. Sharp impression, the hair very slightly chafed by friction: slight defect in planchet from 3 of date to point of bust. Brilliant olive, barely circulated, and the rarest variety of the wreath cents. From the Le Gras cabinet. (Monog. 4.) Plate I.

146 1793 Wreath. Impression from the same dies as last. Good, scratched.

147 1793 Wreath. Legend and date small, the obverse die sprung from chin through hair to border. Extremely fine impression, and in this condition very rare. (Monog. 5.) Plate I.

148 1793 Wreath. "Liberty" very small, the leaves over date slender. Extremely fine impression, of brilliant olive color, and rare. (Monog. 7, 1st rev.) Plate I.

149 1793 Wreath. Same obverse as last, combined with a different reverse. Very fine impression. Dark olive obv., light olive rev. Rare. (Monog. 7, 2d rev.) Plate I.

150 1793 Wreath. Edge lettered. Very good impression: defect between bust and date. (Monog. 9.)

151 1793 Liberty cap. Not a strong impression, but very good for this rare type. (Monog. 11.)

152 1793 Liberty cap. Date plain; fair.

153 1794 Double chin. Microscopic nicks on the cheek, nose and field. The finest impression of this rare variety I have seen, of brilliant color, barely circulated. (Maris 2; Monog. 2.) Plate I.

154 1794 Without milling. Somewhat corroded; very good. (Maris 3; Monog. 22.)

155 1794 Young head. Sharp, perfect impression, of brilliant color and uncirculated. Very rare. (Maris 5; Monog. 4.) Plate I.

156 1794 Crooked 7. The planchet a little damaged, otherwise nearly fine. (Maris 8, Monog. 5, 2d rev.)

157 1794 Crooked 7. Small scratches, nearly fine. (Maris 9, Monog. 5, 3d rev.)

158 1794 Pyramidal head. The head and cap sharp, the legend in part weak as usual. A few corrosion spots; very fine and rare. (Maris 10, Monog. 6.)

159 1794 Many haired. Fine impression, of dark color. (Maris 11, Monog. 7.)

160 1794 The Ornate. Nearly fine obv. Rev., Good. (Maris 17, Monog. 11.)

161 1794 Venus Marina. Very good; scarce. (Maris 18, Monog. 25.)

162 1794 Fallen 4. Very fine impression; olive color. A few brown spots on rev. Scarce. (Maris 20, Monog. 12.)

163 1794 Short bust. Sharp impression; very little circulated but corroded over cap and on left field; nicked on rev. (Maris 21, Monog. 13.)

164 1794 Amiable face. Very sharp obverse; dark. (Maris 26; Monog. 16.)

FINE AMERICAN MEDALS.

Quite a number excessively rare or unique.

278 C. Mortuary silver medal. On an oval shield a skull laureate, surmounted by an hour glass, two scythes crossed and a scroll inscribed (Dutch) "Blessed are the dead," etc. Rev., Crowned tablet with engraved inscription "Ter gedachtenis van Ariana Toffelen Huysvrou van Mattys Geerkens Bottelier op Curacoa obiit den 12 Juli, A 1687." Oval; loop, repoussé shells soldered. Very fine. 32 x 38.

Mortuary medals were struck in Holland on the death of members of the nobility or of opulent families. I am informed that they are very rare; this particular one, it will be noticed, from the engraved inscription on reverse, relates to the death of some Dutch trader's worthy helpmate (huysvron) in Curacoa, America.

279 Bronze medal. Bust in armor of Fr. Chr. de Levi, Duke Dampville, Viceroy of France in America. Rev., Crowned arms. A beautiful medal by Hardy (1658) from the Musée Monétaire. 32.

280 Bronze medal for St. Christopher. 1666. Bust to right of Louis XIV. Rev., Indian princess with French shield; at her feet an English shield. In exergue, ANGE EX INSULA ST. CHRISTOP. EXTURBAT. Extremely fine; original. 26.

281 Bronze medal for Martinique. 1674. Similar bust. Rev., Indian prince looking at fallen warrior under prow of ship. Victory above; COLONIA FRANCORVM AMERICANA VICTRIX. In exergue, BATAVIS AD MARTINICAM CAESIS AC FUGATIS. Original. Extremely fine. 26.

282 Silver medal for recovery of Cayenne. 1676. Similar bust. Rev., Neptune with trident and French flag, driving over the sea, a promontory with dismantled forts in the distance. BATAVIS CAESIS. In exergue, CAYANA RECUPERATA. Original. Extremely fine. 26.

283 The same. Bronze. Extremely fine and original.

284 Silver medal for victory at Tabago. 1677. Bust as before. Rev., Victory above the prow of a galley. INCENSA BATAVORUM CLASSE. In exergue, AD. INS. TABAGO. Original. Extremely fine. 26.

285 The same. Bronze. Original and extremely fine.

286 Silver medal by Meybush for the same victory. Bust to right. LVDOVICVS MAG. REX CHRISTIANISS. Rev., Victory, with thunderbolt and palm branch over the prow of a galley. In exergue, TABAGO, 1677. Unpublished variety. Extremely fine and rare. 18. Plate III.
